2019 LFL Regional Conference – Aurora (Denver) Colorado – Speaker Information

Speakers Include:

- Rev. Jonathan G. Lange, Pastor at Our Saviour Lutheran Church, Evanston, Wyoming, and Saint Paul Lutheran Church, Kemmerer, Wyoming – “Confessing Life with Boldness and Joy” – It is one thing to accept what God says. It is another thing to confess it with boldness and joy. Satan leaves us perplexed and speechless by taking our eyes off of God. His lies are only defeated in the name of the Triune God. A renewed focus on the Holy Trinity returns us to a bold and joyful confession of the Lord and Giver of Life.
- Mona Fuerstenau, Director of Ministry Partnerships, Bethesda Lutheran Communities – “Did God Really Say Indispensable?” – A look at 1 Corinthians 12:22, exploring the place of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities in the Body of Christ. Practical tools and resources to support people with disabilities and their families in your congregation.
- Pastor Roger Wohletz, Pastor at Christ Lutheran Church, Centennial, Colorado – “Responding to Assisted Suicide” – It was a phone call I never expected to receive—one of our church members was planning to kill himself using Colorado’s new assisted-suicide program. Sadly, six weeks later that is what happened. This presentation will not dwell on the details of that experience but will help people respond biblically to the issue of assisted suicide and share ways to witness to those considering assisted suicide.
- Rev. Michael W. Salemink, Executive Director of Lutherans For Life – “A Sixty-Seven-Cent Check Saved My Life” – In 1974, a sixteen-year-old Iowa farm girl’s surprise pregnancy threatened to ruin lives. Roe v. Wade made abortion available just one year earlier for situations like this. But Planned Parenthood was no match for Zion Lutheran Church. The courage and compassion of plain saints patiently serving according to their various vocations cultivated a forty-five-year marriage, three children, twelve grandkids, two pastors, a soldier, and a whole lot of Gospel-motivated Lutheranism. Listen and learn how God’s using you to do the same!
