In a medical first, a woman gave birth to a healthy girl after she received a uterine transplant from a deceased donor. Researchers at the University of São Paulo in Brazil announced the landmark birth. The Lancet reported the new case in which the researchers removed the uterus from a 45-year-old mother of three who died from a brain hemorrhage. The organ was transplanted into a 32-year-old woman who had a disorder that left her without a uterus. Months later, the doctors transferred an embryo made via in vitro fertilization from the woman's egg and her husband's sperm into her womb ... Since 2014, more than a dozen births have taken place around the world using transplanted uteruses from living donors. This latest announcement is a first in the use of a transplanted uterus from a deceased donor. (STAT News, 12/4/18; CLR LifeWire, 12/6/18)

Abortions in England and Wales reached ten-year high in 2017 – When the statistics were published as usual in June, the total number of abortions was given as 194,668, the highest since 2011. However, 3,000 records were missing from the original publication. The new figure is 197,533, the highest since 2008. (SPUC, 12/12/18)

Speaking Up For Life

“Life issues didn’t arise overnight. Their frequent connection to medical technology can make them seem like recent developments—and advances in understanding physiology and pharmaceuticals have made abortion and euthanasia more efficient and available of late. But these circumstances have been causing society’s difficulties—and providing opportunities to proclaim the Gospel—since ancient times.” Rev. Michael W. Salemink, executive director of Lutherans For Life

“Our throw-away culture values ability and perfection. Those values increasingly and unfairly characterize the preborn diagnosed with disability as not even worthy to be born. But God’s Word is clear in King David’s Psalm 139:13-14 (NIV): ‘For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.’” Mona Fuerstenau, director of Lutheran Ministry Partnerships, Bethesda Lutheran Communities

Life Quotes for a New Year

www.lutheransforlife.org/media/life-quotes

“Our happiness, therefore, does not depend on a new year or a changed situation, but upon the Lord and our changed relationship, our deepened growth, in Him and in terms of His will for us ... ‘But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you’ (Matthew 6:33 KJV).” R. J. Rushdoony, philosopher, historian, and theologian

“The first truth of life is that every life is the handiwork of God. The Psalmist says that God ‘knitted’ (Psalm 139:13 ESV) each of us together in our mother’s womb. Job and Isaiah talk about God shaping and forming us in the womb. Yes, the truth of life is, every life is the work of God’s hands.” Rev. Dr. James I. Lamb, former executive director of Lutherans For Life

“Maybe you made a New Year’s resolution to read your Bible more. Follow through with that resolution. Make church attendance a priority. Get to Bible class. Take advantage of the opportunities for Christian education that you have for your children ... Tell a friend or relative about the great things that God has done for them. Support the work of your congregation with your time, treasures, and talents, so that others might be taught as you are.” From “Meditations,” published by Northwestern Publishing House

“What work has God prepared for you? (Ephesians 2:10). Is it helping a woman who is pregnant and alone? Is it ministering to someone who has had an abortion and can’t believe that God would forgive her? Is it feeding the hungry? ... Whatever God has called you to do, do it with joy.” Kay L. Meyer, former director of development for Lutherans For Life

“God needs and wants you in His kingdom-building work. God thinks you are a valuable part of His team. God thinks that you have an important role to play. God thinks you are worth investing in. God actually stoops down to make you great. Seriously.” Pastor Marke Jeske, www.timeofgrace.org

“We are weary and overwhelmed by a multitude of life issues. Sometimes we are prideful after doubting God’s Word and trusting something else. As the culture decays and evil abounds, we may believe that God asks the impossible of us ... In the face of evil, let it be said of us: Look! They remember ‘the Lord, who is great and awesome,’ and they ‘fight for [their] brothers ... sons ... daughters ... wives, and ... homes’ (Nehemiah 4:14).” Linda Bartlett, former president of Lutherans For Life
